Wheeling Female Seminary FALL SESSION

THIS Institution, under the superinted ance of Mrs. S. R. Hanna, has risen, to be one of the foremost schools in the country. It has grown in interest, usefulness and public layor steadily, until now, it is believed by its board of Trustees, that it presents attractions to parents and guardians abroad speh as schools parents and guardians abroad speh as schools anywhere in the West can claim. The scademic regime adopted and carried out has been the result of the carefully matured plans of a corps of efficient and experienced teachers, and every department of the course has been so thoroughly systematized that it is believed to be exactly adapted to every variety of capacity and every grade of progression among pupils. The situation of the school is beautiful and inviting, combining as great a number of advantages in point of health, scenery, accessibility and general convenience to boarders, as any school knows to its Board.
